

Emergency Student Support for Continuing Studies Application

The Japanese government has announced the program “Emergency Student Support Benefit” for “continuing the education” to support the students who are struggling financially due to cutbacks on their part-time jobs and facing difficulties in continuing their education.

【NOTES】

Please check if you also meet the following conditions as well as the ones in the handout.

- Those who continue course until March 2021 or longer are eligible.
(※You may not be selected even if you meet all the conditions since we have very limited frame for applicants in each school.)
- The application documents should be prepared carefully. Incomplete application will not be included in the screening.
- You may have to return the funds if your application is found to contain false information.
- Students who wish to apply or are considering applying shall go over the links below carefully and send the required documents to the following email address.
